

A photograph showing a man in a light blue short-sleeved shirt and jeans assisting an elderly woman. The woman is wearing a white cardigan, a brown scarf, and dark trousers, and is using a cane. They are standing on a cobblestone path next to a white van with its side door open. A black wheelchair is positioned in the foreground. The background shows a brick pillar and some greenery.

Unique Class & SnR Transportation Services

Elevating Safety and Reliability for
Non Emergency Medical Transportation
Patients

Unique Class & SnR Transportation Services

Elevating Safety and Reliability for Non
Emergency Medical Transportation Patients

Unique Class & SnR Transportation Services

Elevating Safety and Reliability for
Non Emergency Medical Transportation Patients

What Do We Do?

We provide Non-emergency medical transportation services that's safe, reliable, and comfortable.

We ensure timely and stress-free travel to medical appointments!

We transport individuals who require assistance or specialized care.

Who Do We Service

We primarily serve individuals who are unable to use regular transportation due to medical conditions, disabilities, or age-related limitations. Our clients often include —>

Overall, we play a crucial role in ensuring these populations have access to necessary healthcare and community services, promoting better health outcomes and quality of life!

Seniors

Elderly individuals who need assistance getting to medical appointments, dialysis treatments, or social engagements. >

Individuals with Disabilities

People with physical or cognitive disabilities who require specialized vehicles and assistance for transportation.

Patients Requiring Medical Supervision

Individuals needing transport to and from hospitals, clinics, rehabilitation centers, or outpatient facilities.

Low-Income or Medicaid Beneficiaries

Those who qualify for Medicaid or other government-funded programs that cover transportation costs for medical appointments.

Workers' Compensation Claimants

Individuals needing transportation for medical evaluations, treatments, or therapy related to a work-related injury.